

Good morning!

Linet Ester Ayikoru joined us today!

Age: five months

Estimated Birthday": 3rd of December 2008 (we give birthdays to every child who joins us because we wouldn't want to miss a birthday-party!)

This little girl was found abandoned several days ago by a lady who happened to walk through a dark, narrow alley in Kampala. When she heard the sound of a baby crying, she looked closer. There she found this little girl lying naked on a small dirty blanket. The woman picked her up and brought her to Mutungo Police post in Nakawa division on the 10th of March. From there, she was admitted on acute care unit through the casualty police post Mulago hospital. The police then started to search relatives to this baby girl. But time was passing and no relatives could be traced.

As the hospital was running out of time and resources she was referred to Kids of Africa. Just in time to celebrate her first easter with us! We are happy to welcome Linet Ester as our youngest guest! She has joined mother Agnes who, jointly with her five new brothers and three new sisters has welcomed her warmly.

I hope that this short notice finds you just as well as all of our children at Kids of Africa are!

Happy easter from everyone at Kids of Africa!

By the way: The name "Esther" means "star" and derives from the Book of Esther in the Old Testament, which tells the story of Queen Esther, the Jewish wife of the king of Persia who saved the Jews from the realm of extermination.
